*sometimes in the beginning... we don't know where we're going,
or what we're doing;
but, we have the wind at our backs and faith in our hopes to steer us in the right direction.*

*destiny moves the wind...
shows us the way...
allows us to erase yesterday's doubts by finding tomorrow's answers.*

it's funny...

but each of us feels the wind in a different way, at a different time.

and no two destinies will ever be the same...

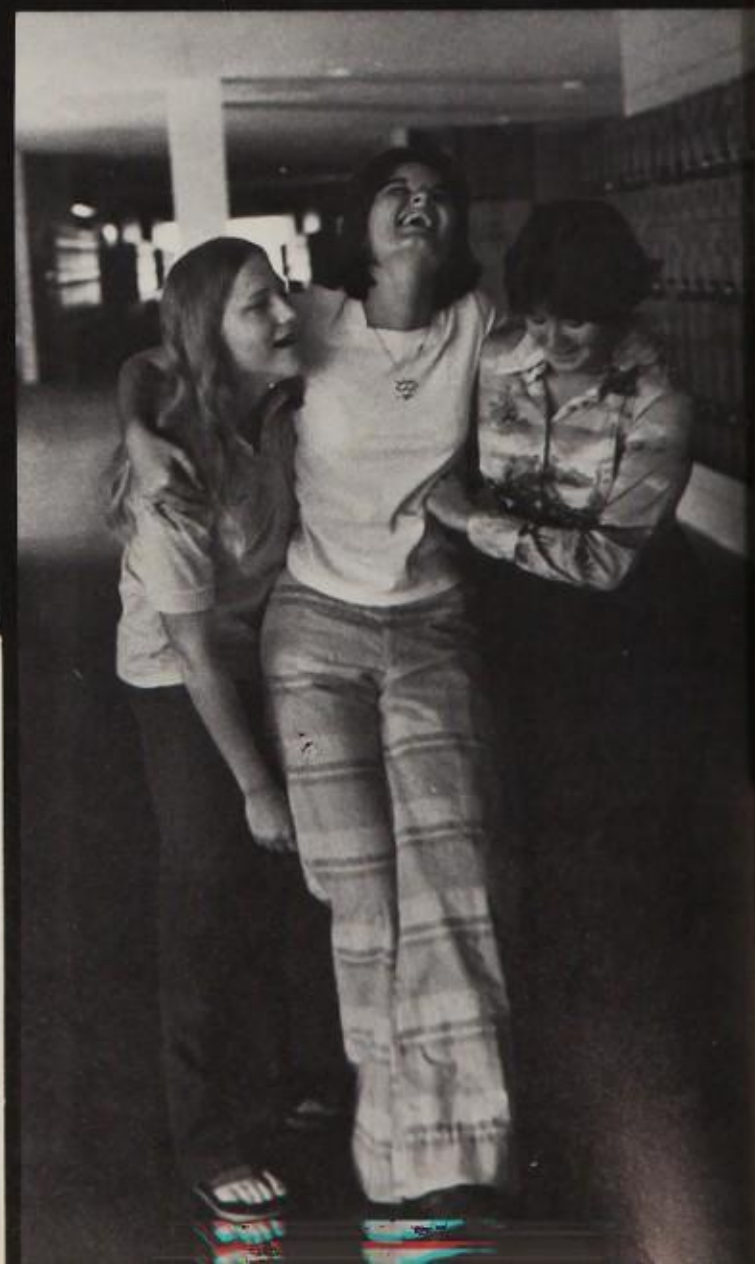

unless we share our hopes and dreams together.

can we?

*each moment has its own special feeling, as long as we're willing to look for it.
i've got the time to spend with you...
finding ourselves...each other.
do you?*

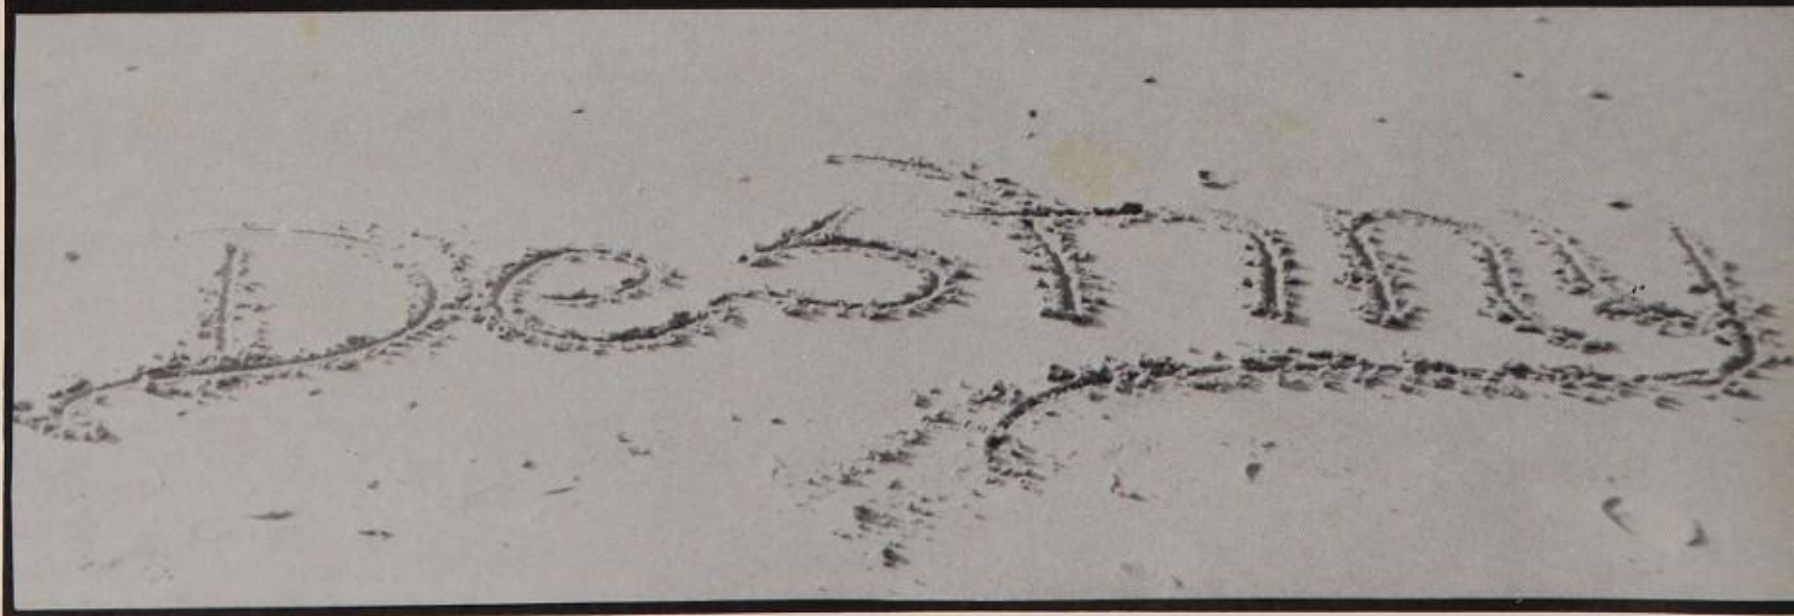

*take your time...
'cause it's only once
that you'll have this day to take it for all it's worth.*

*take it all in
'cause there's nothing that can't wait if it means enough.*

*we're only what we let ourselves become... destiny is but a discovered dream and as each grain of sand is scattered by the wind,
so our lives must be spent together and apart from the dreams that mean the most to us.*

with each new moment there comes a change, a chance for a new experience and as the sand is shaped by forces it does not control, until it takes its rest secured, we must not stop until our lives are complete.

and now that we've come this far... we stop to share a smile and a memory.

so each moment that we have together is for now, for us...

and we'll take each future hope as it comes...

... a day at a time.

*i don't worry about what tomorrow will bring. sure, i'm afraid because the future is uncertain but should it be any other way?
for without the doubt there'd be no reason to experience.
we can only be strong
when we have the courage to fear.*

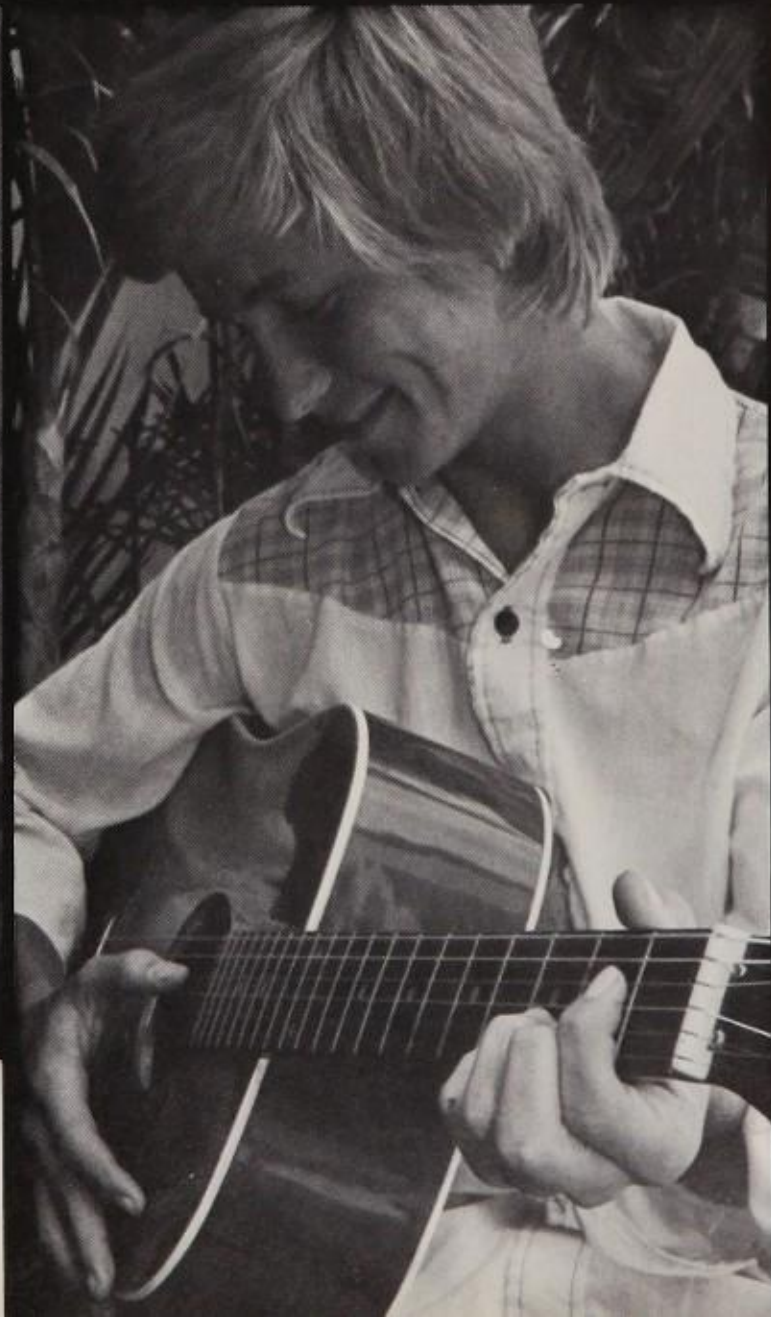

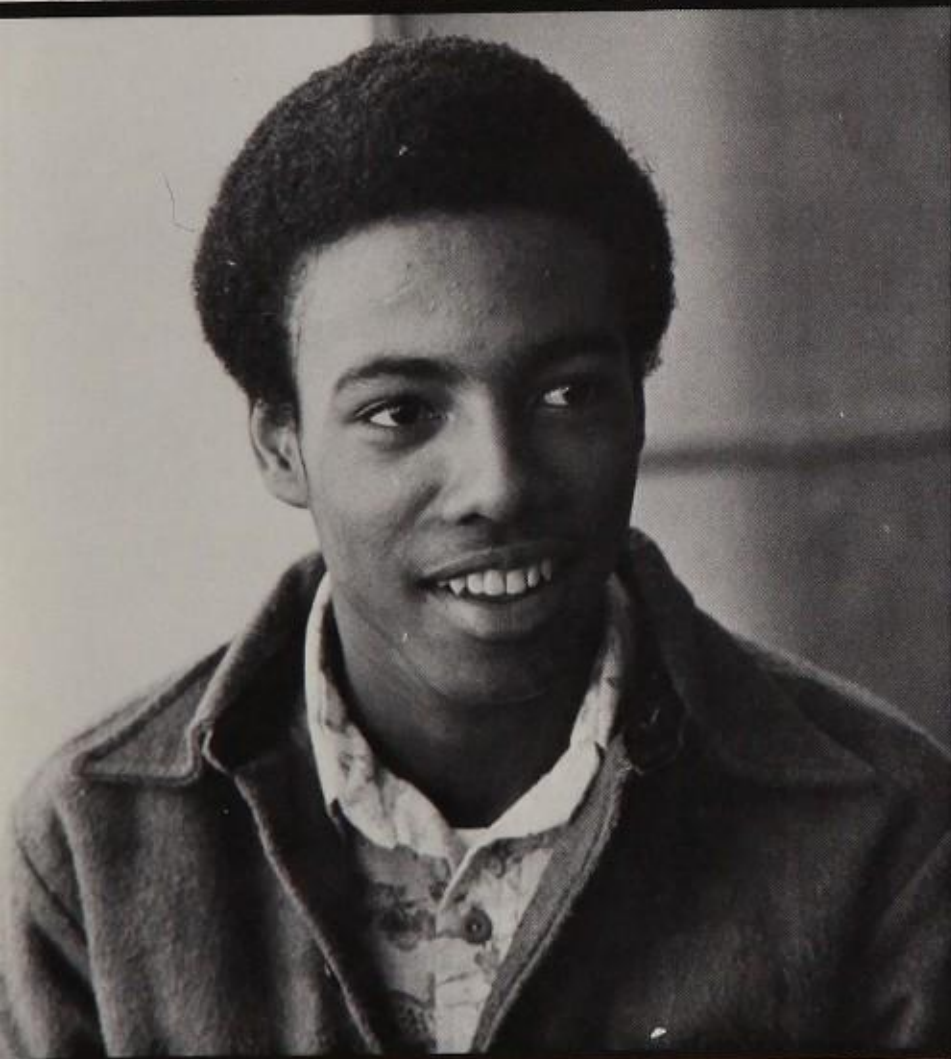

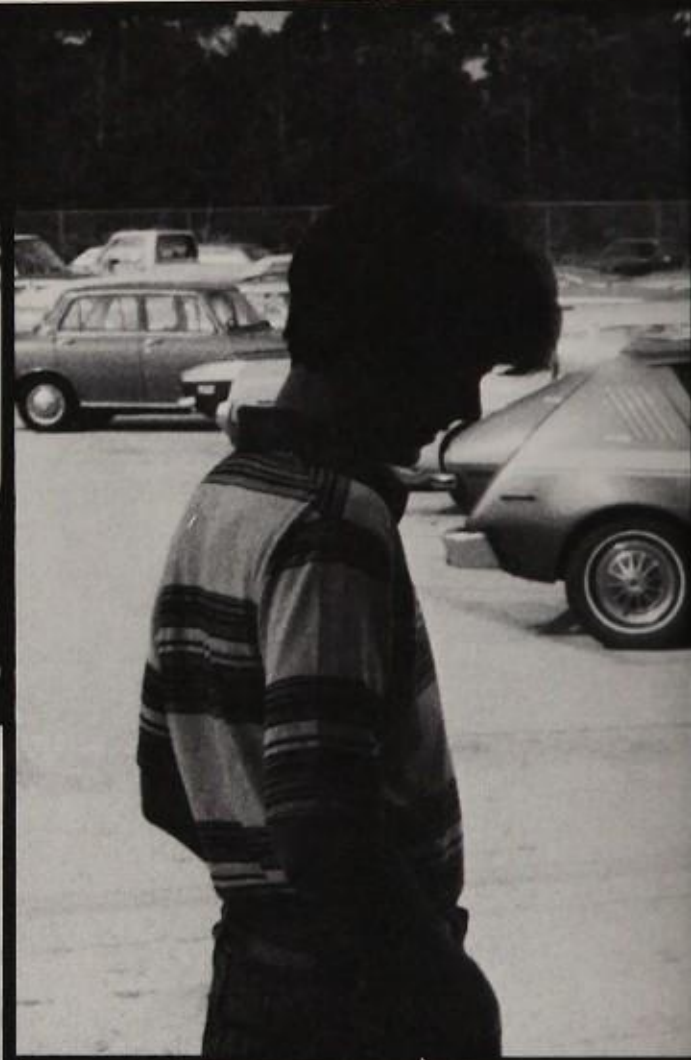

*the only truth is cause,
the only answer is belief,
and when you have both...
fate and destiny go hand in hand.*

*it seems we learn this from the people we meet,
the experiences we've had...
only tomorrow remains to be understood.*

*there's a feeling deep inside... and it's an answer, a reason to keep on trying, no matter how great the odds are against us making it.
call it faith, call it inspiration but don't ever forget it... and when you're discouraged and doubtful keep your chin up.*

there are roads i regret i haven't taken but only after i've learned from the places i've gone... there are people i'm sorry i haven't met but only after i've shared my time with others...

*. . . life is lived, not through what we haven't done, but through what we only now remember.
it's only this way we reach our destiny.*

*when i was small, i only wanted things i could hold in my hand and see.
it's funny how much you change... now i'm only satisfied when i want something that's out of my reach and i'm not sure what it is or what to call it... but it all fits my destiny.*

*sometimes i feel like i'm running free, chasing fantasies i've only dreamed . . .
the world is spinning and when it stops i'm turning slowly where i've left off.*

*i like to try and catch the wind, catch the days that nighttime ends.
memories of all the things i've done, a lifetime of experiences yet to come.*

individuality...

*everything we do, say, think, and feel is a genuine and unique expression of ourselves.
no one else is like you or me in any way.
sometimes in reflecting the thoughts of another we are together, and yet individual, as we merge in our uniqueness. together we trust in each other, share in our joys and dreams; and yet alone we must travel those paths of our minds known only to us. individuality is yet another key to our lives and of what is behind the door of the future for us.*

those who are wise...

lives already determined have an important influence on those not yet shaped. with the help of those who are wise and who can help us find our separate ways, we will become rich in wisdom, and what we have learned can be passed on.

dreams and hopes are built on the foundations of past experiences. the memories of these experiences provide us with constant thought, through which the decision you and i make and the new hopes we strive to reach can all be brought into reality. for it is the realities in life which shape the memories yet to come.

friends...

a friend cannot be made in a single moment, but only through the constant everyday occurrences in our lives. but when a friend is realized as such, and the feeling returned, the bonds will be strengthened between those already bound in friendship, and will add to those still young.

endeavor...

we must reach out to achieve the goals we set for ourselves, however great or small they may seem. as long as we continue to endeavor, to live, and to overcome, our lives can know no emptiness, but will always be filled with the urge to strive on, to embark upon a new climb, to reach a still higher goal on the path of our destiny.

SHERI ALMAND 12/28/60 TO 2/6/77

we are born for a higher destiny than that of earth; there is a realm where the rainbow never fades where the stars will be spread before us like islands that slumber on the ocean and where the beings that pass before us like shadows will stay in our presence forever.

edward bulwer-
lytton

time...

*as time rides the wind, it shall take us away to places never dreamed of-if we try to follow the wind, to let our spirits run free, to take in all that the future has to offer us, we find that today is now, not yesterday or tomorrow, or any other time. there is a strong yearning in all of us to be able to see what promises and memories tomorrow may hold, but by first living today, we then shape tomorrow into all it can possibly be.
in the end, we've found and taken yet another step toward reaching our ultimate goals-and discovering our destiny.*

best wishes
to the class of '77

HARBOR CITY

VOLUNTEER AMBULANCE SQUAD, INC.

1131 SOUTH HICKORY STREET
MELBOURNE, FLORIDA 32901

EMERGENCY TELEPHONE: 727-1444
BUSINESS TELEPHONE: 724-4411

Dear

In September 1966, Harbor City Volunteer Ambulance Squad made its first emergency run. The second emergency run was made four days later. Today, after ten years of operation, we make more emergency runs in one day than we did in that first month. We believe also that in this period of time the quality of our service has significantly improved.

However, we are not satisfied in just continuing to provide our present level of service. Advanced Life Support Services of the type seen on the popular TV show "Emergency" are becoming available in many parts of the country. It is our objective this year to take the necessary steps forward toward introducing this level of service to the community of South Brevard.

To accomplish this, of course, requires special equipment and special training for our members - both of which cost money. In addition, again this year, we have to plan on replacing two of our six ambulances with new units.

Your generous donations in previous years have enabled us to provide our present level of service. Your continuing contributions will make it possible for us to achieve our goals for the future.

HELP US HELP YOU. PLEASE SEND YOUR TAX DEDUCTIBLE DONATIONS IN THE ENCLOSED SELF-ADDRESSED ENVELOPE.

Thank you for your continuing support.

Sincerely,

P. A. Roberts
President

Harbor City
Volunteer Ambulance
EMERGENCY

727-1444

P.S. Have you ever considered joining our organization? We invite you to join us in providing our expanding service.

Destiny. It's something we all must think about. What causes our lives to take the course that they do? What will happen to us in the future? I'm sure the people you've met at school, and the experiences you've shared, have had an important part in shaping your future. I hope this book will provide many memories of this school year, and that you will be able to look back at this phase of your life, and see how important these years were in shaping your destiny.

Many long, hard hours were spent producing this book. The staff was really dedicated to making it worthwhile. In spite of everything, it really was worth the effort. I hope you enjoy this book and appreciate all the work that went into it.

The beautiful copy in the introduction was written by Kevin Knight. I'd like to thank him for the time he spent writing it, and for giving his time to help make the Commodore '77 great!

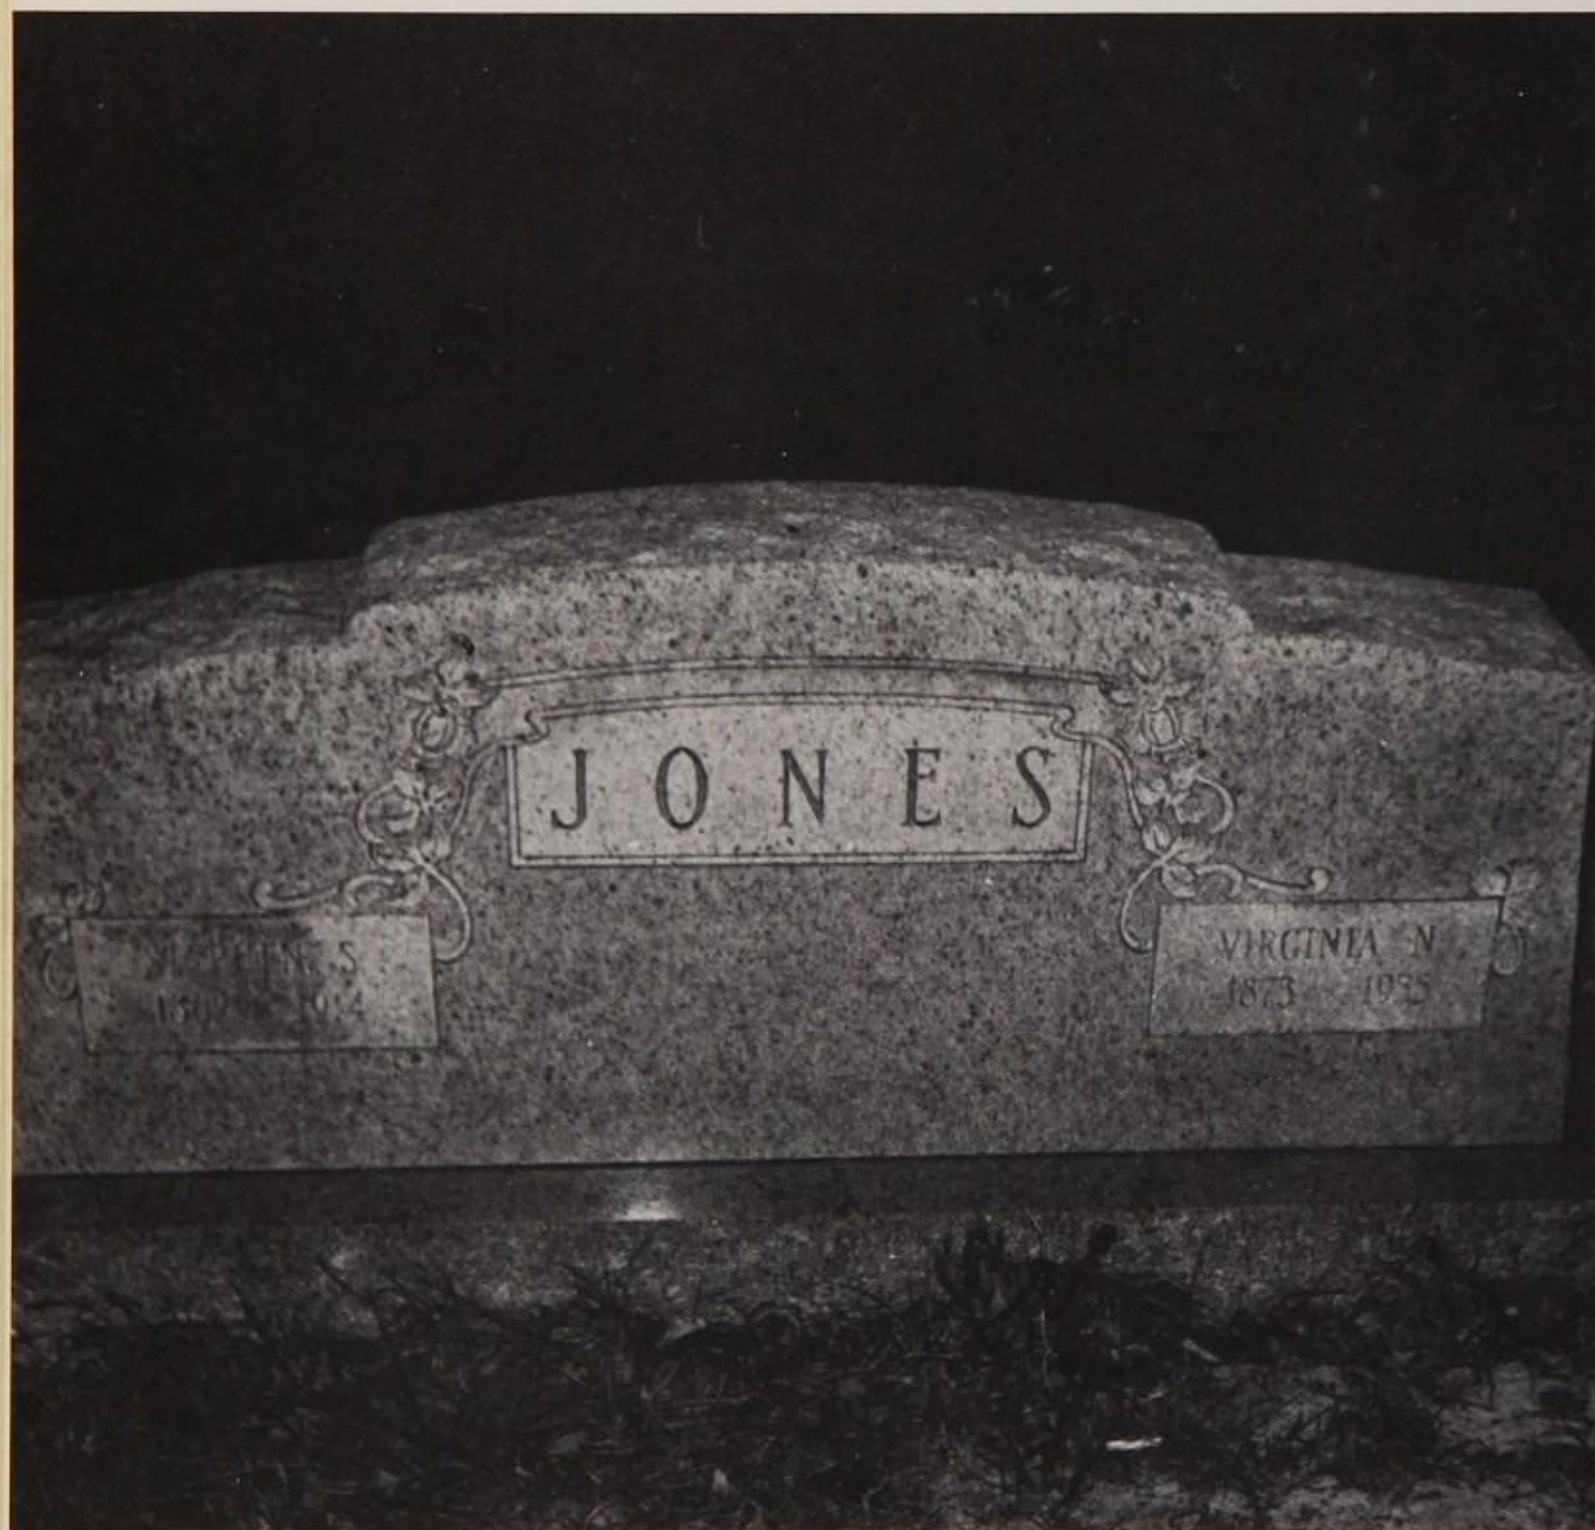

Lastly, I would like to thank Miss Pat Black, our sponsor, and Mr. Bill Wolfe, our publishing representative, for their time and interest in the Commodore '77. I sincerely hope they are proud of our accomplishment.

Cathy

as sand is shaped by forces unknown, bridges burn behind us.
we, we scurry about, always conscious of father time.
wake up and live; only you can shape
YOUR true destiny.

moments of truth and hatred fall
as raindrops, refreshing, but then slowly taking hold. . .

soaking us to the skin.
until. . .

friends with their love take us for ourselves

. . .and with casual comment help us to stand again.

. . .people we can talk to,
enjoying the little things of great importance. . .
wondering and believing in our deeper thoughts about the Infinite and
people. . .
and experiencing true
happiness.

music the arts and literary works help us relieve pent up feelings . . .
 and let talent out.
 showing feelings . . .
 through a kiss or a gentle hug can receive honors.
 can YOU use a little practice in the art of expressing yourself?

as we discover that new experiences are forever coming we realize they are helping us to shape our future

this school year of '76-'77 a year of joy and sadness for everyone
 may we all learn from the joy of youth . . .
 so quick to forgive
forever reaching out, forming their
Destiny . . .

A dramatic landscape photograph. The sky is filled with large, textured clouds, with a bright light source breaking through near the center, creating a strong glow. In the foreground, the dark silhouettes of several trees are visible against the lighter sky. The overall mood is contemplative and powerful.

DESTINY. . . a future surrounding many experiences, casting its shadow over the bad and throwing light on all good;
a motive for living, .
for caring, sharing, loving and enjoying each fragment of Eternity.
